Expected business volume and tax information for private customers

Dear customer

It is time for your information in the bank's system to be updated. The bank has an obligation to know you and how you will use the bank.

Continuous updating of our information about you and all our other customers is necessary for your and society's safety. When we know a little about you and how you expect to use the bank, we have a better way of noticing if something - contrary to expectations - is suddenly not as it should be.

In this way, we can best protect you from misuse of your identity and accounts - while at the same time you help us to fight financial crime in society.

What does this mean for me?

Specifically, this means that we ask you to answer some questions about yourself and your use of the bank, so we can ensure that our information is correct.
