

Guidance for transfers abroad via online banking

Transfers abroad must be made via a browser, transfers abroad cannot be made via the BANK of Greenland's mobile banking app.

When transferring abroad with Express transfer (denomination 1 day), you must transfer no later than 10.45 a.m. time. The money will normally be in the hands of the recipient the next business day. The price is 1 o/oo min. DKK 400

If you want to transfer abroad with an ordinary transfer (denomination 2-3 days), the money will normally be in the hands of the recipient 2-3 days after the day of the transfer. The price is DKK 50.

1. Log in to online banking with MitID.
2. On the left-hand side, click on 'Pay and transfer' and then 'Transfer abroad.'

1. Fill in the relevant tabs.

Payment of fees:

There are 3 options you can choose from:

1. I pay fees to the BANK of Greenland, and the recipient pays other fees.

The cost price depends on which payment type you choose, if you choose Express transfer, it costs 1 o/oo min. DKK 400.

If you choose a normal transfer, it costs DKK 50. You must be aware of whether the price has changed.

Updated prices can be seen on the bank's website at www.banken.gl

The receiving bank deducts their costs from the amount forwarded.

2. I pay both fees to the BANK of Greenland and other fees.

You pay the fees to the BANK of Greenland yourself as well as the recipient's bank's fees for receiving money from abroad.

3. Recipient pays all fees.

The recipient pays the BANK of Greenland's fees and the recipient's bank's fees for receiving money from abroad.

Recipient information:

IBAN no. or account no.:

You enter the payee's IBAN number or account number correctly, there is an extra fee if you write the wrong IBAN number or account number.

Recipient's full name and address:

It is important to enter the recipient's full name and address, you cannot just enter the recipient's PO box, you must write the entire address.

Notice to payee:

You write here if you want to write something to the recipient.

Swift-address/BIC:

You enter the beneficiary's swift address; it is possible to search for swift no. by pressing 'Search' and then writing bank name and city.

Recipient's bank full name and address:

It is important to write the recipient's bank and address correctly, as there may be several banks in the country you are sending to.

Make any additional choices:

Clearing code:

The clearing code can be compared to registration numbers used in Greenland, Denmark, and the Faroe Islands. The clearing code helps the receiving bank to place the payment on the correct account as quickly as possible.

It is possible to enter a clearing code for the countries mentioned below. If the country is not on the list, you can omit filling in the clearing code.
